

Forest make 130 miles by taxi!-

O NE Manchester United fan hired a taxi specially for the 130-mile round trip to Derby. He is 20-year-old Dennis Singleton, of Saldrord, who had his left ankle in plaster after breaking it a few weeks ago. He arrived at the ground in the hope of buying one of the 250 tickets that United returned to Derby, but was unsuccessful.

unsuccessful.

Later, however, how obtained one from a tout, and commented: "I don't know what the taxi bill will be, but it will be worth it to see United."

FA CUP Third round

CHELSEA DEFEAT

IVERPOOL took the lead in their FA Cup third rematch with Chelsea after only two minutes, crashing the ball into the net to a great roar from 54,000 Anfield crowd. But Osgood got the equalisserem minutes and Chelsea took the initiative. At time it was still 1-1.

Liverpool's defence was unsteady and Chelsea should have regained the lead, but Bridges shot over. Chelsea left out Murray and Boyle from their 13 and faced the same Liverpool team which beat them in the semi-final tast
