

Hull's Cup victory: Forest lose 2-0

Record £11,000 takings
at Boothferry Park

HULL CITY announced that their FA Cup tie with Nottingham Forest was a complete sell-out. The receipts, over £11,000, made a record for the club, exceeding the previous best of £7,427 (attendance 40,231) for the game with Millwall last Boxing Day.

A PENALTY goal by Alex Gibson lifted Notts. midway through the first half, but within ten minutes of the resumption Martin Ferguson had put the home team on terms.

Both sides missed some splendid scoring chances both before and after these goals.

Brian Bates withdrew, after all, because of a damaged knee. This led to Flower being switched to the right wing, and Shields, originally named as substitute, coming in at inside right.

Barnsley took over as substitute. Still in it, Notts had first chances from the side which beat Lincoln City a week ago.

Agnew and Kirkup, after long absences, and Moulden, after a week's lay-off with influenza, were brought back.

Barnsley had new signing Ian MacColl, from Partick Thistle, making his first home appearance. The Barnsley pitch had been completely cleared of snow and the game was expected to be perhaps slightly better than the Magpies had anticipated.

There were four moves by Notts inside the first few minutes of the second half and from any one of them they could have increased their lead.

First Moulden darted between the two halves, then Shields and Kirkup made tracks. The Barnsley pitch had been completely cleared of snow and the game was expected to be perhaps slightly better than the Magpies had anticipated.

NOTTINGHAM FOREST's Cup hopes nosedived before an all-ticket crowd at Boothferry Park this afternoon as a bad defensive blunder enabled Terry Heath to give the home team a 19th minute lead.

by TONY PRITCHETT

The Tigers deserved to hold on to their advantage as Forest, despite raising their game, laboured unimpressively for an equaliser.

Hull had chances enough to make sure of a fifth round place in the FA Cup. Forest fought hard to save their reputations but a splendid second goal from deputy Terry Heath put them out of the Cup.
